

Five Festive New York City Hotels For The Holidays

Roger Sands Contributor @
Travel
Editor, Food & Travel Magazine Writer, BELLA NYC

No city celebrates the holiday season quite like the Big Apple. The Radio City Rockettes are high kicking while The Nutcracker is performed by the New York City Ballet. If you happen to be one of the millions of tourists who visit the city during the holidays, take some time to see the following hotel decorations and celebratory events that are sure to put you in a very festive mood.

Rooftop igloos are a special holiday attraction at Park Terrace Hotel. PARK TERRACE HOTEL

Park Terrace Hotel

Located directly across from Bryant Park, Park Terrace Hotel is a window to New York favorite attractions ranging from luxe Fifth Avenue shopping and Broadway to the New York Public Library and The Empire State Building. Throughout the winter season, Park Terrace Hotel is fully decked out in cozy, Après Chalet-themed decorations designed to help transport guests from the hustle and bustle of NYC to a remote, European mountain top. Complete with rooftop igloos offering birds-eye-views of Bryant Park's Winter Village, faux fur throws, warm fireplaces and projections of snowflakes, Park Terrace Hotel is fulfilling guests' winter wonderland dreams this season. The property is also serving an Après Chalet-inspired menu including alpine hot chocolate, melted swiss raclette cheese, s'mores kits for two and more.