HOTEL

ROOMS & STUDIOS

The 225 rooms and studios offer unparalleled views of Bryant Park and the New York Public Library. Inspired by natural harmony, the Stonehill Taylor designed rooms provide bright, fresh, and airy decor, serving as the perfect respite after a day of exploration. Room features include floor-to-ceiling windows, luxury linens, and MALIN + GOETZ bath products.

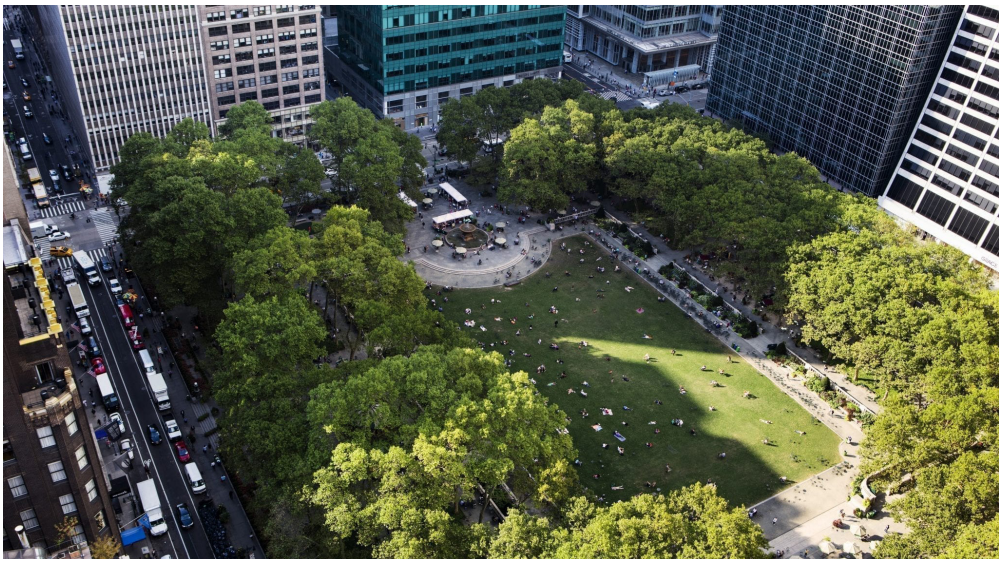

EAT & DRINK

Park Terrace Hotel is home to two magnificent on-site establishments: La Pecora Bianca and TALEA. La Pecora Bianca, which is open daily for breakfast, lunch, dinner, and room service, offers a modern take on classic Italian fare. Open daily, TALEA is a sleek taproom that offers coffee, tea, beer, cocktails, wine, and light bites.

NEIGHBORHOOD

Overlooking iconic Bryant Park, Park Terrace Hotel is situated in the heart of Midtown Manhattan. Located on 40th Street between 5th and 6th Avenues, this luxury address is easily accessible to all New York City favorites including 5th Avenue, Grand Central Station, the New York Public Library, and the Empire State Building.

BRANCH

REACH NEW HEIGHTS

Perched high above iconic Bryant Park but with deep roots in the surrounding community, Branch is Park Terrace Hotel's new members club concept for locals and hotel guests to work, connect, and recharge.

Designed with work in mind, Branch has plenty of spaces to meet, collaborate, or get down to business.

MEETINGS & EVENTS

Thoughtfully designed, our new and inspiring spaces are the perfect setting for any gathering. Each room is unique and flexible, offering exceptional service, curated food and beverage options, and state-of-the-art technology. When combined, the spaces can accommodate up to 130 guests.
